Summer Bowel Troubles Dangerous

It is necessary to check their evil course quickly. Good old fashioned blackberry wine was about as good a remedy for that purpose as ever was known. But it's hard to get nowadays.

Nyal's Blackberry Carminative, though, serves the same purpose splendidly. Its base is that same pure, old-fashioned blackberry wine, combined with several other antiseptic and astringent to soothe and heal the inflamed bowels. It's a simple home remedy, with a few modern improvements.

It's good for children. We recommend it. Satisfaction or your money back.

N. Y. POLITICS

MAY BE DISCUSSED BY TAFT AND ROOSEVELT.

Washington, Aug. 3.—President Taft and Theodore Roosevelt are scheduled for another conference in the near future, according to information which has reached friends of both men in Washington.

It is understood that a second meeting between the two men is particularly desired for the purpose of discussing the political situation in New York state.

Taft-Teddy Will Not Meet.
Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 3.—Denial was made by former Ambassador Lloyd C. Griscom, of the story printed in the Bridgeport Post to the effect that President Taft and former President Roosevelt had accepted invitations to meet at Mr. Griscom's summer home at Black Rock at an early date. Mr. Griscom said he had made no arrangements for such a meeting.

Theory of Murder.
Newark, O., Aug. 3.—The police are working on the theory that Charles L. Condit, 28, a farmer, whose body was found in Buckeye lake Monday, was mistaken for a "dry" detective and slain. The autopsy shows Condit was beaten over the head before being thrown into the lake. Coroner Marriett says that Condit's death did not result from drowning.

Misses Clyda and Georgia Simpson and Misses Zola and German Winchel arrived today from Golconda on a visit to Mrs. J. B. Enders, 819 South Eleventh street.

Return from River Trip.
A party composed of the following returned home at 6 o'clock this morning on the steamer J. B. Richardson after making the round trip to Nashville: Misses Flossie Thurman, Rosa Thurman, Nannie Parker, Annie Schuman; Mrs. Ed Thurman; Mrs. Elizabeth Schuman, Mrs. Anna Parker; Sergeant Joseph Kresky; Mr. Charles Morris and Master Dillard Thurman.
